Coaches Spotlight

Charles Newton III

Assistant Coach

Lexington, Kentucky

Newton begins his 2nd year as an assistant coach at Samford after spending two seasons as the Video Coordinator. He came to the Bulldogs from Tennessee Tech, where he played and coached.

SCOTT PADGETT ANNOUNCES SECOND ANNUAL COACHING CLINIC

Samford's second annual coaching clinic. Last year's clinic was a huge success. We were able to interact with over 40 coaches from Alabama, Tennessee, and Georgia.

This year, coach's will have the opportunity to go through 2 film sessions with Coach Padgett (one on Offensive sets, one on our pressing system and zone defense) and then watch two practices where we will be going over what we just saw in film.

Also, throughout the day, coaches will have opportunities to listen to and ask questions to our Strength and Conditioning Coach, Jonathan Faris. During lunch, there will be a brief presentation from our compliance coordinator and a chance to ask questions about the new eligibility and qualifying standards for incoming freshman.

This year, another added feature will be online registration. You will be able to register you and your staff at www.scottpadgettbasketball.com.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW? SERIES

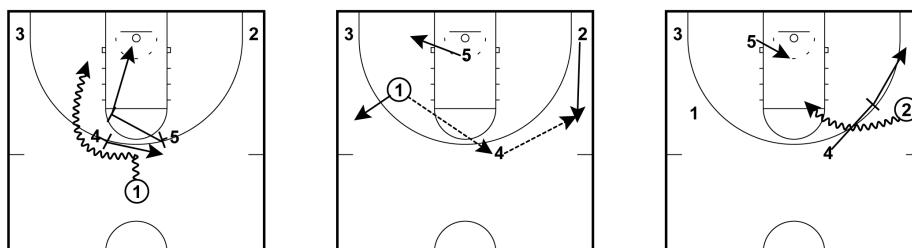

Throughout the months of July and August, the Bulldogs have been putting together a series called Where Are the Now?

The latest article talks about former Bulldog Standout Derrick Jones, who is currently on staff at Vanderbilt under Head Coach Kevin Stallings. Jones played at Samford from 1999-2001 and was instrumental in the Bulldogs trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Others in the series include: Joey Davenport, who is a Senior VP for a financial advising firm in Kentucky and Travis Peterson, who is currently playing professionally in Russia.

Follow the series at www.samfordsports.com.

PLAY OF THE WEEK— "HORNS TWIST"

This is a great late game set to try and get you 4 man (or best shooter) two good looks out of pick and pop situations.
